Leading Drum Corps Promise Gala Event

Beverly and Lowell, Essex County Champions, Sure to Come to Field Day Next Week–Marlboro, State Champions, May Be Here—Many Others Included

With eleven drum corps of the state already signifying their intention of competing at the Field Day being sponsored by Andover Post, No. 8, American Legion, at the Andover playstead on Saturday, September 24, this competition takes on the hue of a championship competition, with several of the leading drum corps in attendance.

Beverly, with a drum corps that took the Essex county championship of B class on last Saturday at Topsfield, will be in Andover again vying with all for still more recognition. The Lowell drum corps, who were judged the best at the same competition of A class, will likewise be seen at the Andover Field Day. There is a strong possibility that both Marlboro, awarded the 1933 Championship at the recent state convention in Lawrence, and Brockton, high in their class, will come to Andover, which gives evidence of the importance of the competition under the leadership of the Andover post.

Other posts who have accepted invitations include Malden, North Andover, Framingham, Haverhill, Lawrence, Derry, N. H., Exeter, N. H., Peabody, Stoneham, Salem, N. H., and Andover post, the latter in the capacity of the hosts. All told Frank Markey, chairman of the competition and parade, expects fifteen drum corps for the final judging.

With a street parade in which each of the drum corps competing for the prizes must take part, according to competition rules, prior to the competition, Andover will see in formation some of the most colorful and most striking of the drum corps of Massachusetts. Beverly, with their all-white uniforms, make a picturesque setting for the all-blue uniform of Lawrence. Haverhill has the uniform of the Canadian Mounted police and Malden borrows the West Point uniform for parade. Lowell, with their black and gold colors, have excited comment in every city in which they have appeared.

The prizes which will be awarded are divided into three classes. Class A: first prize, $50.00; second prize, cup. Class B, first prize, $50.00; second prize, cup. Open class all marching and out-of-state corps: first prize, $40.00; second prize, $25.00, third prize, cup. There will also be a prize of $100 awarded to the corps obtaining the highest number of points, regardless of class.

The Andover post, the members of which are working tirelessly to make the competition on September 24 a huge success, sin-

Garden Club Will Elect Next Tuesday

The Andover Garden club will hold its annual meeting on Tuesday morning, September 20, at the residence of Mrs. Frederic N. Chandler, at half-past ten.

After the election of officers and a discussion of plans for the coming year, there will be an exhibit of flower arrangements, using the flowers grown by members from the packages of "Bretton Woods" seeds distributed in the spring. Each member will furnish her own container.

Tyer Foremen to Hold Outing

The 13th annual outing of the Tyer Rubber company foremen and their guests will be held at the Pelham Inn, Pelham, N. H. tomorrow. Cars will leave factory No. 2 at 9 a.m. sharp.

A lively time is expected as there is great rivalry between the contestants in the various sports. A baseball game between the following teams will be held upon arrival at the field: Captain, Sam Hibbert; John Sullivan, James Sullivan, Jimmy Welch, Jake Cilley, F. L. Wright, Leon Field, Dan Manion, Billy Budd, Harry Wrigley; Captain, Joseph Holland, James Gillespie, Alex Meek, Tom O'Donnell, Barrett, Alex Lamont, Foley, Henry Cairnie, Archie Gunn, Bill Dane. Kenneth Bergstrom will be relief pitcher for either team. George Branch will act as umpire for the baseball game.

Following the ball game there will be a fat man's race, 100-yard dash (open), three-legged race and wheelbarrow race, and a soccer game (five men on a team). This latter will be one of the high lights of the day. Names of those participating will not be divulged at this time.

At 12.30 a roast chicken dinner with all the fixings from soup to nuts will be served. Following this will be a general smoke talk and rest up period for the events which will follow.

At two o'clock there will be a tug of war between the same baseball teams excepting that Jake Cilley and Alex Lamont will act as captains. At 2.30 water sports are in order and if the weather permits there will be many interesting swimming and diving contests. It has been whispered about that there is to be an exciting outboard motor boat race. John Sullivan has been tinkering with his motor all summer and now declares it to be in excellent condition. Leon Field's sea horse is well known.

There will be an ice chest in charge of William Budd and George Branch.

The sports will be announced by Roland W. Thompson.

K. of C. Carnival on October 12-14

At the meeting of Andover Council, 1078, K. of C. Monday night it was decided that the date for the annual carnival scheduled for September 14, 15 and 16 should be changed to October 12, 13 and 14. The cause for this sudden change in plans is given as being the undesirable condition in which the carnival grounds and entrances are at the present date. The carnival will be held in the hall next month.

Mrs. Frank Welch was put at the head of a committee to be in charge of a series of whist parties and John P. Alexander was made chairman of a committee to conduct a series of dances during the fall months.

There have been no notable changes in buildings or grounds during the summer but everything has been put in good order for the coming year.

The new faculty appointments have been already announced in the Townsman. Miss Esther Comegys, Wellesley, A.B., Radcliffe, A.M., has been appointed Dean and Head of the Mathematics department. Miss Ruth Morgan, Smith, A.B., will have charge of the work in Physics. Miss Fanny B. Jenks, A.B., Mount Holyoke, who has been for some years a member of the staff, will undertake the duties of Registrar and Assistant to the Principal.

Legion Enjoys W. Andover Outing

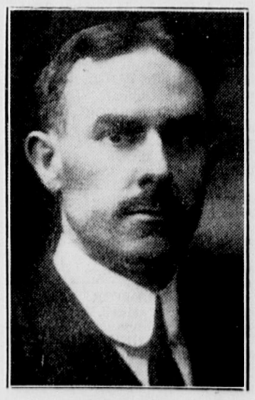

One of the most successful outings ever held by the local Legionnaires took place Sunday at Nicholas Grove in West Andover when about fifty members of Post 8 enjoyed a varied program of sports. The usual baseball game between the married men and single men resulted in the usual high score, with the married men, because of the unusual playing of their Adjutant, Joseph A. McCarthy, winning 16-14. John Platt and Bob Christie formed the married men's battery while Jim Sparks and Claremont Gray performed in the box and behind the plate for the more fortunate Legionnaires.

A dribbling contest was won by John Campbell with Frank Nicoll second, while Percy J. Dole won the kick for distance with Thomas Davies as runner-up. Arthur Jowett and Arthur Coleman are the 1932 quoit champions, with John Keith and Tom Davies second best.

Found Guilty on Assault Charges

Frank Ward of Argilla road was fined $10 in District court this week on two assault charges when he pleaded guilty before Judge Albion G. Peirce. Chief of Police George Dane told the court that two boys who had been out hiking entered Ward's land unintentionally. Ward, he testified, encountered the two youths and, accusing them of stealing parts from an old automobile he had in the woods, struck both of them. Ward testified that, enraged at the theft of the automobile parts and believing that the lads were the guilty persons, he had struck them, but he felt sorry if he had punished innocent parties.

Ask Additional Funds at Special Meeting

Selectmen Call Special Town Meeting to Act on Warrant of Ten Articles—Board of Public Works Asks Transfer—Sunday Sports Included

A special town meeting has been called for a week from Monday night at 7.45 to act upon a warrant consisting of ten articles, dealing mainly with the relief of the unemployed. A total of $32,000 in new appropriations is being asked, and there is an additional request for $1,665.27 to be appropriated from the unexpended balances of Articles 8 and 9. There is also an article asking that the town adopt Sections 21 to 25 inclusive of Chapter 136, General Laws, making it lawful to take part in or witness any athletic outdoor sport or game on Sundays.

The first six articles were contained in a petition filed with the Board of Selectmen on September 13 by William A. G. Kidd, who thus becomes responsible for his second town meeting of the year. The Board of Public Works petitioned for the transfer of the unexpended balances. Fabien Matton and others petitioned for the appropriation of $2,000 to cover the cost of material for the extension of the water main along Beacon street to the property of Louis Cyr. John Mullen and others signed the Sunday Sports petition.

Kidd's petition asked first for the transfer of $10,000 or any part of this amount from the reserve fund to the Board of Public Welfare. The Finance committee recently recommended the transfer of $5000 from this fund to the Welfare department, and the transfer has already been entered on the books. An out-and-out appropriation of $20,000 is asked in the second article to be spent by the Board of Public Works. The third article would have the prevailing rate of town wages apply to all town work. Article four would have the town vote that the Board of Public Works spend two-thirds of its money now on hand, and Article five would have the town adopt a forty-hour, five-day week.

Kidd presented his petition Monday following a month of signature gathering. His goal had been set at 500 but when the check-up was made only 81 names were found valid. The additional necessary signatures were secured the next day.

The directors of the Taxpayers' association met last night and went over the articles in the warrant. It was decided to send a communication to every taxpayer in town, earnestly advising them to attend and to be prepared to vote on the various articles. At the meeting George B. Frost was elected a delegate to the Taxpayers' association Conference in Worcester September 23. The association directors will meet again next Tuesday.

Andover Student Fails to Return

The local, state, Salem and Boston police yesterday started a search to locate Julia Daly, 18-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Daly of 96 North Main street. The young lady left home Wednesday morning bound for the Salem Normal school with twelve dollars in her possession. When she failed to return in the evening, the police were notified.

The Andover police called the Salem police who conducted an investigation at the school. Statements made there seem to have indicated that Miss Daly had not gone to the school, and a check-up at the Andover station showed that she had bought a ticket to Boston. The Boston police started a search and the state police were notified by teletype.

When last seen the young lady was wearing a blue coat, red dress, tan silk stockings, black felt hat, and light shoes. She is five feet, eight inches tall, and weighs about 135.

Bowling League Being Organized

The Industrial League, which three weeks ago concluded its first baseball season, is now preparing for the bowling season. Six teams have already been invited to join the league, which will probably be composed of eight teams. The four teams, which were in the baseball league, the V. F. W., the Post Office, the J. E. Greeley Co., and the Townsman, have been invited to join, as well as the Sherrill club and the Merrimack Mutual.

The first meeting will be held Monday evening at 7.30 at the Essex street alleys. Present plans include a banquet at the end of the season, when prizes will be awarded for high score single, high score triple, and high average. Two representatives of each of the teams named above are requested to attend Monday's meeting. Any other teams wishing to join should call Alfred R. Harris, 456.

Well-Liked Priest Receives Transfer

Rev. Hugh P. O'Neill, O.S.A. of St. Augustine's church, who was assigned to his clerical duties here only last July, has again received transfer orders. Rev. Fr. O'Neill has begun his work at his new station in the parish of St. Thomas of Villanova at Rosemont, Pa.

Rev. Bienvenido Junquera, O.S.A., is the successor of Fr. O'Neill at St. Augustine's church. Father Junquera is a native of Spain. He was ordained to the priesthood in 1928 at Zamora in Castile and his first post was in the Philippine Islands where he was stationed for four years. He has been in this country only two months.

Cast Your Ballot Wisely

The first skirmish in the 1932 political battle will take place next Tuesday when the voters of Massachusetts will journey to the polls to express their choice from among those who would like to carry their party's banner in November. Primaries do not attract the attention which their importance deserves. The coming election will determine who is to represent the two parties in the November election, but if the great majority of the voters fail to cast a ballot, it cannot be expected that the man finally elected will be the really popular choice. There has been much criticism about primary elections, but regardless of their merits or defects, the fact remains that as long as we use this system of nominating candidates here in Massachusetts, the wise thing to do is to cast a ballot.

A citizen does not, however, fulfill his civic duty by merely going to the polls and voting. He must vote wisely and not blindly. The days of the hurly-burly political campaigns, with their red lights, brass bands, and free cigars seem to be relegated to the scrap-heap, but voters are still motivated by factors which in no way are indicative of a candidate's fitness for a particular office. Candidates still talk, still indulge in ballyhoo, and the ordinary voter might be gullible enough to believe all the effusive orations he hears. But words mean nothing. As the Banker and Tradesman said in its September 10 issue, "it is relatively unimportant whether an office seeker is an avowed wet, an avowed dry, a protentionist, a free trader or what have you. The really important question is: Has he brains enough to analyze conditions as they are, and courage enough to act on the result of that analysis? We are going to see a lot of legislation proposed this year. Some of it will be ballyhooed cleverly and enticingly. Some of it will have a lot of sob-sister appeal. Some of it will be aimed at getting the government out of business lines; some of it will endeavor to put the government deeper into business. Some of it will have the germ of a great idea, but it will be so twisted and warped by compromises as to be worse than useless. Some of it will go clear down to the heart of our present troubles, but more of it will deal only with surface indications . . .

"It is going to take good men, big men, brainy men, trained business men to direct our various forms of government successfully through the period just ahead of us. And we, the voters, are going to pay the bill. If we elect good men, the bill will be reasonable and progress toward rehabilitation should be relatively uninterrupted. If we elect the wrong type of men—well, you know the answer as well as we do. In measuring our candidates let's lay less stress on their commitment to this or that and more on their capacity to analyze correctly the swift changes that are bound to take place in the coming months."

Not much more need be said. Although business recovery seems to be on its way, there is still need for steady hands at the helm. There are still many things that must be done before our governments are once more going along smoothly. It is up to the individual citizen to help by using his judgment in putting the best men in office. Tuesday is the time to start.

Wheaton President Addresses Grange

Andover Grange met on Tuesday evening. The teachers and school committee of Andover were guests of the evening. Dr. J. Edgar Park president of Wheaton college was the guest speaker of the evening. His subject, "Every Soul is a Circus," was unique and with characteristic skill he proved and brought home his lessons to each and every one to the keen enjoyment of every listener. The Hawaiians who were to furnish music for the evening were late due to a series of unfortunate accidents, but the music was much enjoyed when they arrived.

Arthu Lewis, master of the Grange, gave the address of welcome and a short resume of the origin and work of the Educational Aid fund of Massachusetts State Grange. The plan of the fund originated in Massachusetts State Grange but is now being copied by other State Grange. Massachusetts has $80,000 in use now with a growing demand. Andover has contributed over $1,000 of this during the fund's seventeen years' existence. Numerous Andover boys and girls have been helped by this fund. After the reception refreshments were served by the executive committee and the Goddesses. Dancing followed. The next meeting will be Kelley Night and the High Priest of Demeter, Charles M. Gardner will be the speaker. The Silver Certificates will be presented on this evening. The 4-H clubs of Andover and their parents will be guests also. The "Garden Prizes" will be awarded at this time.

Haverty Candidate for General Court

Harry P. Haverty of 297 South Broadway, Lawrence, is a candidate for the Democratic nomination to the House of Representatives from the Sixth Essex District. Haverty is against high automobile insurance rates and the extra Lawrence-Andover telephone charges.

Haverty is well-known in Andover because of his many relatives and friends here. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George P. Haverty, residents here for many years.

His platform is formed as follows:

"A ballot cast for Harry P. Haverty means a vote for a man who has lived in the district all his life. He was born there and is now engaged in business there. When the call to arms came, Candidate Haverty left this district for the front, took part in several major campaigns, and came home wounded and disabled.

"A tax-payer, a service man, a business man, a man interested for years in community enterprises, deserves consideration.

"The Sixth Essex district has been Haverty's home and business location. He knows the people and what they need. Above all, he knows how to serve them.

"If nominated and elected, Haverty will join the campaign against high automobile insurance rates and the extra Lawrence-Andover telephone charges.

"Haverty favors the proposed scenic highway project in Merrimack Valley and the taxing of all securities.

"Haverty will pave the way to better government and more alert representation at Boston. His personal record is open to every voter in the district. It merits a place for him in the House of Representatives."

That all men are created equal is one o those things everybody says and nobody believes.

State, Federal Work Assists Ipswich's Idle

(By the Ipswich Chronicle)

IPSWICH—The State Department of Public Works is asking for bids on approximately two miles of bituminous macadam reconstruction on Route 1A between the Rowley line and the High street crossing Ipswich. This is the project which it was believed would not on account of lack of State funds, be undertaken this year but approval has been secured for its construction under the Federal Aid Emergency Construction Fund, and with bids to be opened September 20, work will probably start by October 1. The contractor who secures the job must under the terms of the contract secure his labor from a list to be submitted to him by the Ipswich committee on Unemployment with qualified ex-service men with dependants given preference, and other citizen labor second preference.

Unemployment Situation in Stoneham Improves

(By the Stoneham Independent)

STONEHAM—First indications that times are getting better were revealed this week when it was noticed by committees doling out work to the unemployed that several of the regularly established visitors to their offices were not present. Further investigation revealed that some have received their employment of former days back again, others have entered new fields of regular employment, and others still have been promised work in the near future.

Although the number of these men is small, it is considerably encouraging since it is the first slight sign of improvement which local solons have found to come to their attention since the era of wholesale unemployment set in last year. Members of the committees on unemployment are not stating their elation in regard to these conditions, since they have learned by experience that it may be a temporary change only.

It is, however, a great relief to find thi brief spot of encouragement, the first in a long series of dark days of difficulties. It reveals another condition which has existed locally, and which has come to the attention of unemployed and citizens as well, that those in charge of the unemployment situation here are doing every thing possible to assist those in difficulty and are taking these men's difficulties to heart as if they were their own problems.

Advocates Repeal of Auto Insurance

Albert O. Greenwood has filed his papers as a candidate for the Republican nomination for representative in the Sixth Essex district. The candidate is a descendant from one of the oldest families in Massachusetts one member of whom was the first letter carrier for the U. S. Government after the Revolutionary War from the North Tavern to Portland, Maine. He has appeared several times at the state house at hearings pertaining to the Welfare of Lawrence and Andover and he was one of the first to seek the improvement of Andover hill. Mr. Greenwood was formerly connected with the automobile business but at present he conducts a jewelry store. He is married and resides at 501 Andover street, Lawrence, with his wife and children.

ALBERT O. GREENWOOD

Mr. Greenwood's platform is to secure the repeal of the automobile compulsory insurance law. He states: "The farmers of New Hampshire are dumping their products on our markets. They pay no compulsory automobile insurance, and they undersell our local farmers. We must give our farmers protection. I am for a reduction of 25 percent in the cost of government, and a reduction in the pay of all state employees to balance the budget and reduce taxes. If nominated and elected I promise a businesslike administration."

Nason Conducting Active Campaign

Former Senator Arthur L. Nason, a candidate for senator on the Republican ticket, was in town several days this week. Mr. Nason served five years in the old 4th Essex district and is well known here and in North Andover. He has built up a strong organization of local men and women voters who are acting in his behalf.

Davis Counting on Experience to Win

State Senator J. Bradford Davis is seeking the Republican nomination to his present post again this year. His legislative experience has been longer and more varied than that of eighty percent of the present members of the Senate. He has been well-known in Andover ever since his early school days at Phillips academy, which he followed up by pursuing studies at the University of Maine. Mr. Davis had to undergo an operation recently for appendicitis, but he has been able to do some campaigning, and he feels that this, along with his experience, will send him back to the State House.

Senator Davis has been chairman of many legislative committees, notable among them being three different unpaid research committees in three different years, also the joint legislative committee on automobile insurance rates of last summer, and the committee representing the Commonwealth at the Yorktown Sesquicentennial.

Sale for Hospital

On Friday, September 23, in the vestry of the Trinitarian Congregational church in North Andover will be held the annual sale for the benefit of the Lawrence General hospital. It is hoped that the Andover people will show their interest in the hospital as in former years and set aside the day and come to the sale. Any contributions of vegetables or food or money will be gratefully accepted.

Dugan Candidate for Representative

James J. Dugan, Republican candidate for the General Court, was born on Highland road in 1897 and has always resided there. He was educated at the local public schools, Bryant and Stratton and Suffolk Law schools at Boston. He has been connected with the newspaper business for more than sixteen years, having been employed at one time by the Andover Townsman and at present by the Lawrence Tribune.

Compliments of the Lawrence Telegram

JAMES J. DUGAN, JR.

During the World War Mr. Dugan was one of the first Andover boys to enlist and saw eighteen months of service at the front with Battery C, 102nd Field Artillery, 26th Division.

Mr. Dugan was endorsed in his initial attempt to have a local man elected to this office in 1930 by more than 3000 voters and feels confident if the voters will support him next Tuesday that with the contacts he has made in the past two years he can be elected in November.

Among his issues are a "Pay as You Go" policy and an investigation of all State Departments to the end that the overlapping in a great many cases may cease and a more economical administration of state affairs be secured.

Thirty years ago a boy would get sore when he was asked to walk a mile to buy a pound of sugar; now he gets just as sore when he is asked to answer the telephone.

You have to think out some things for yourself—nobody can help you.

Tells Meaning of Political Racketeers

Francis J. Chrestenson Republican candidate for Congress in the 7th district, has been explaining at rallies all over the district in the past week the meaning of his slogan "Expose the Political Racketeers." He intends to show if nominated by the Republican party, that the Democratic Congressman who has represented this district for the past ten years has voted for appropriations totalling hundreds of millions of dollars, not for the interest of our Country, but for the selfish purpose of getting votes for himself so that he may continue as a Congressman until he dies of old age. The same thing exists with many other Congressmen and it is about time that a man went to Congress who will call these gentlemen to account.

The men who vote away the taxpayers' money like water just to strengthen themselves politically, are no different from any other Racketeer who preys on the honest business man and taxpayer. It makes no difference if the collector in one case is the gangster, and the other the government, if the taxpayer has to pay out money which should not be taken from him.

When times were good and everyone was making more than their expenses and had something to lay away, they never worried about what they paid for government; but today things are different. With employees of many cities not receiving their pay for months at a time and business men waiting for months to collect bills from these same cities because the people are unable to meet their taxes, the future is very dark. A halt must be called in the ruthless squandering of the people's money by our political element. If he is nominated for Congress he promises the people of this district to show them the most terrible conditions that ever existed in the spending of their money by the Political Racketeers.

Raymond Speaks to Local Voters

Sheriff Frank E. Raymond, speaking in front of the Town Hall last Tuesday night, went over his record as sheriff, especially from the financial side. He pointed out that there has been a slight increase in the number of prisoners. He added that there have also been a few increases in the cost of taking care of the prisoners. This he followed by an analysis of the higher costs, and he concluded:

"This shows, I am proud to say, that the increases have been in the main, caused by increase in number of prisoners; increased number of Court orders for families whose husbands and fathers were convicted of non-support; and unavoidable medical bill for operations.

"And I submit that this record shows that the duties of my office have been performed by me with due regard for my county and its welfare. And I assure the voters of the county that I will perform the duties of my office with the same high regard with which I have performed them in the past."

Local Stars End Sucessful Season

Two Andover girls, Mary M. Doherty and Mildred McGlynn, were victorious last weekend at the Canobie Lake swimming pool and the Brookline reservoir, where the out-of-door swimming season came to an end. Miss Doherty, a senior at Punchard high school and a member of the Boston Swimming Association, completed a very successful summer season at Canobie Friday night by winning the Women's New England A. A. U. Junior 100-yard breast-stroke in the time of 1 minute, 31 2-5 seconds, and placing second in the 100-yard backstroke, which was won by the brilliant Mildred Toomey, also of the B. S. A. Miss Doherty was leading in the 100-yard free-style at Brookline Saturday afternoon until an injury to her left eye, resulting from a collision with a water buoy in the tank, forced her to retire. This event was won by Mildred McGlynn.

Besides her victory at Brookline, Miss McGlynn won first place in the 100-yard free style for girls 15 years and under, and placed second in the National 100-yard free style race at Canboie. The local mermaids will now mark time until the indoor season begins, when the standard set by Andover girls in the past is expected to be maintained.

The only Andover boy to place at the Lake meet was Frank McBride, Jr., son of the popular local officer, who came in third in 100-yard free style event.

David Approves Salary Reduction

Attorney R. E. David of Summer street has issued the following statement of his views on today's public issues. Attorney David is a candidate for representative from the Andover district.

"Public Economy—Constructive plans for stabilization in finance and industry cannot be completely organized until our National, State and Municipal governments not only balance their budgets, but take on some of the frugality we practice in private affairs.

"I shall urge prompt and drastic reduction of public expenditure and resistance of every appropriation not demonstrably necessary to the performance of the essential functions of the State Government. In line with this policy, I shall vote for and advocate a reduction in salaries of the members of the House and Senate.

"Prohibition—I believe that each state in the country should have the right to determine this question and am wholly in accord with President Hoover's position on this issue, so ably and fully defined in his speech of acceptance.

"I pledge myself fearlessly and unremittingly to the task of eliminating abuses and extravagance and of drastically cutting the cost of government so as to reduce the heavy burden of taxation.

"I pledge myself to help in every way possible to stimulate business and relieve unemployment.

"Crime—I favor enactment of rigid penal laws by the Federal Government as well as the State that will aid in stamping out the activities of gangsters, racketeers and kidnappers. I also believe in fewer and better laws.

"Veterans—Our country is honored whenever it bestows relief on those who have faithfully served its flag.

"I believe that every veteran incapacitated in any degree by reason of injuries or illness attributable to service in defense of his country should be cared for and compensated by a grateful nation, and the dependents of those who lost their lives in war or whose death since the war in which service was rendered is traceable to service causes, should be provided for adequately. Legislation should be in accord with this principle."

Local Boy Gives Old Pals a Treat

Many of the minstrel show followers in Andover will be glad to learn that K. Auchterlonie, formerly with the old Smith and Dove minstrels, is now on the air with "Big Brother" Bob Emery's harmonica band every Friday at 6.30 on WNAC and at 7.15 on WAAB. He is known on the air as Scotty Munroe. On September 3 he sang "The Voice in the Old Village Choir," and he has also rendered several other solos.

"Scotty" was born in Scotland but lived here on Argilla road for many years. During the war he had a troupe of his own. His many friends will be delighted to hear him and to help his career along by sending letters of appreciation.

Even when you've resigned yourself to fate, it's well to keep close to the steering wheel.

Former Local Man in Sheriff Race

With the state primaries being held on next Tuesday, a former Andover man, Harold E. Larkin, Bradford candidate for the Republican nomination to the office of sheriff of Essex county, is looming up as one of the strongest candidates for this nomination in a field of five aspirants. This strength, according to leaders in county politics, lies in the recent statement to the press made by Hon. George J. Bates, mayor of Salem, to the effect that he had withdrawn his support of the present incumbent in favor of Mr. Larkin, due to conditions of the present administration that had been called to his attention.

HAROLD E. LARKIN

Mr. Larkin, son of the late Walter Larkin, a game warden of Essex county for over three decades, lived on Chestnut street in this town for many years. He was educated in the local schools, later attending Suffolk Law school in Boston. He enlisted with a group of Andover boys in Battery F, 102nd F. A., and served with that unit in every engagement of the 26th Yankee Division. After the war he entered the employ of the commonwealth in the Fish Hatchery department. Since making his residence in the down river city, Mr. Larkin has actively engaged in municipal politics of Haverhill, and is as well known in county politics. He is a member of the Haverhill City Republican club and of the Essex Republican club.

If elected to the office of sheriff of Essex county, Mr. Larkin states that he will correct the existing condition whereby the expenses of that office have increased on an average of $1,000 per month this year over the same period of 1931. He also states that he will inaugurate a system that will endeavor to send the youth of today who are serving terms in the county jails back to society with a firm effort to become better men. There is no such system in effect at present.

Mr. Larkin's mother and sisters are at present living on Porter road, in Andover, while he makes his home at 45 Fernwood avenue, Bradford, with his wife and family.

Lovett Candidate for Congressman

Despite the fact that this is a presidential year and much discussion goes on regarding the relative merits of nominees for the highest elective offices in the nation, the political interest of this town will be largely centered around the contest for Congressman, in which Charles W. Lovett will undoubtedly receive the Republican nomination on Primary Day, next Tuesday.

The Republican nomination for Congressman in 1930 was won by Mr. Lovett by a two to one majority over his opponent, and he received close to twenty-five thousand votes on the final tally, ten thousand of which were cast by Lynners. This was a remarkable achievement in view of the fact that no campaign of any kind had been waged in his behalf and for years no Republican candidate had been in the field.

The situation assumes a different aspect this year with the inclusion of overwhelmingly Republican cities and towns in the district, including Revere, Wakefield, Winthrop and Andover Based on the party enrollment in the present district, there is a strong indication that Mr Lovett will be sent to Washington.

Lovett was born in Lynn and educated in the public schools, the Lynn Classical high school, the law school of Boston University, the College of Liberal Arts, and the Graduate School of Boston University majoring in economics. He has practised the profession of law for thirty-two years.

Aside from the preponderance of Republican voters, hundreds of small merchants and property owners, oppressed by the burdensome taxation placed on them by the last Congress, and fearful lest the present Representative succeeds in passing the bonus bill of two billion, four hundred million dollars, are pledging allegiance to Charles W. Lovett, who has pledged himself to oppose the immediate payment of this staggering sum, which he says would be a serious hindrance to the business recuperation of the country. With such a marked trend at the present time toward economy in government, the voter will hesitate before endorsing a candidate who proposes to spend such enormous sums of money at the expense of the taxpayer.

The citizen today considers more the safeguarding of his pocketbook and the reduction of taxation, rather than the mere popularity of his Congressman, and with that thought in mind, Mr. Lovett would make an admirable choice. Years of activity in the Y. M. C. A., Chamber of Commerce, fraternal organizations, social clubs, church and charitable projects has given him a broad vision of the needs of the people, and experience in handling efficiently the responsibilities which may be entrusted to him. He is a "go-getter" and has accumulated thousands of friends in his thirty-two years of law practice. He has extended his practice throughout the country, being nationally recognized as one of the foremost patent attorneys in the United States and Canada. He is widely known for his executive ability in both civic and business circles and has sponsored and represents many major activities.

He is a keen student of economics and public finance, is fully competent, and can be depended upon to apply that degree of study and analysis demanded by governmental problems.

Mr. Lovett believes the only way to gain relief from the Eighteenth Amendment is through the Republican Re-Submission plan. Not only will the return of legalized liquor aid to some degrees the re-industrialization of our country, but even more important, he recognizes that the revenue derived from the sale of intoxicants and the saving of millions now appropriated for enforcement will appreciably decrease the taxation imposed upon the taxpayer through other sources.

An important feature of Mr. Lovett's platform is his promise to advocate a national five day working week of forty hours, and he stands for a protective tariff in favor of the Lynn, Peabody and Lawrence industries which are now crippled, mainly because of the unfair competition with foreign made commodities.

Midshipmen Cruise Through Hurricane

The U. S. S. Wyoming which is carrying the midshipmen of Annapolis on their annual cruise, has returned to Norfolk, Virginia. The ship passed through the outskirts of the hurricane as it sailed down the coast from Halifax, Nova Scotia, last week and on September 8, according to a letter sent home by Midshipman Allan C. Edmands of Carmel road, the wind was blowing hard, and the vessel was pitching and rolling.

He said that a number of the fellows were up in the super-structure decks watching the big waves break over the bow, when they noticed an exceptionally large wave coming. Some of the fellows got out their cameras and took pictures of it just before it hit the ship. When it struck it splashed all over the place and took some of the fellows off their feet and everyone was soaked to the skin. No more waves that size came after that one, but the storm continued through Friday and Saturday, the maximum roll of the ship being 36 degrees on either side, perhaps the record roll of the Wyoming. During Friday and Saturday they did not set the mess tables up as the roll of the ship would have knocked them over and the midshipmen had to eat standing up, "holding a hot dog sandwich in one hand, a cup of coffee in the other, and hanging on to something with both hands."

Needless to say this was quite an experience for the young seamen, but according to the letter they thoroughly enjoyed it.
